

HALITO! [Hello]

It is with great pride that I welcome you to Choctaw Country!

During the spring and summer months, there's no shortness of things to do: fishing, swimming, boating, waterskiing, off-roading, you name it. You can come for the thrill-of-a-lifetime with activities filled with excitement – or simply set-up camp somewhere, do some fishing, and enjoy a gorgeous hike at your own pace. Yes, spring and summer are a great time to visit.

Then, when the air starts to cool down and the leaves begin to change, I find myself getting excited. In Choctaw Country, there are so many wonderful things to look forward to during the fall and winter seasons! Take a brisk (or long) hike through the stunning fall foliage, find some of the greatest hunting and fishing spots for miles around, or treat yourself during perfect camping temperatures to a spectacular view of the stars.

Whether you are looking for a peaceful retreat or a weekend adventure, our community members are here to welcome you with open arms and true southern hospitality.

At every turn, you will find history, nature, excitement and, most importantly, culture. So come experience the Choctaw Nation and see for yourselves!

Chi Pisa La Chike! [Be seeing you]

BREWERIES, DISTILLERIES & WINERIES

There are so many ways to experience the bliss of your favorite drink. For some, it's a flight of craft brews in varying shades of amber and russet, the lacing on the glass as you tilt it to your lips. For others, it's uncorking a new vintage and exploring the balance of sharp acidity, bright florals and fruity undertones over an intimate conversation with a friend. Still, others live for the warmth of a good whiskey and the smoky-sweet flavors that accompany every smooth sip.

Whatever your preference, Choctaw Country offers an abundance of spirits to explore in places designed for making lasting memories.

CAMPING & LODGING

Whether in a tent, RV or cabin, when you retreat from civilization, give ourselves the space to live in the moment and appreciate the beauty constantly taken for granted. Gathered in a circle around the hypnotizing dance of fire, the conversations become more intimate as stories are told and laughter is shared. The stars seem to have multiplied and hang heavy in the night like pale sentinels over the wilderness.

These are the places that allow us to truly thrive, and there's one around every proverbial corner of Choctaw Country.

CAMPSITES

In Choctaw Country, a great view is as simple as unzipping your tent. Find the perfect spot at one of our many state parks or designated camping areas, then just pitch your tent and start getting back in-tune with nature.

CABINS

For those who love celebrating the great outdoors... indoors, cabins are always a great option. You can keep it rustic with cabins offering limited amenities, or you can go all-out with "glamping" style luxury. With cabins scattered across Southeastern Oklahoma around state parks, fun activities and breathtaking views, you're sure to find the one that feels like home-away-from-home.

HOTELS, INNS, B&BS

Perhaps a full-service stay is more along your tastes. No worries – once again, Choctaw Country has you covered. From reliable chain hotels to quaint inns and B&Bs, they'll make sure you have all the comforts of home and more.

RV PARKS

Ready for an adventure? Hook up your RV and head out! With RV parks spread throughout Choctaw Country, you'll have a place to stay no matter where the road may take you. Find your spot and make some RV friends!

UNIQUE STAYS

For all its regular places to stay, Choctaw Country isn't without its quirks. Want to stay somewhere a little different? Friends, you're headed to the right place! Where else can you sleep overnight in a houseboat or a train car – or even a 1950's-style hotel? Hey, whatever floats your boat!

FOLIAGE SIGHTSEEING

"I hope I can be the autumn leaf, who looked at the sky and lived. And when it was time to leave, gracefully it knew life was a gift."

– Dodinsky

Autumn is undeniably one of the most celebrated seasons, and it's no mystery as to why. The cooling temperatures beckon us outdoors, and our lungs fill with the crisp breath of a new season that washes away the stale tang of summer.

Many are under the misconception you have to travel to the northern part of the country for stunning autumnal views, but they're much closer than you think—right here in Southeastern Oklahoma. These places are a must if you're searching for 'gram-worthy photo ops and back-roads vibes.

STARGAZING

Countless galaxies and endless pinpoints of light lay cradled in the inkiness of our wild skies. They reach out to us from millions of light years away, waving from the past as if to say, "I was here. I exist."

Perhaps that's what we find so entrancing about the limitless nighttime sky. We see a reflection of our own desire to make our mark on an incomprehensibly vast universe. To leave a lasting impression that burns for eternity.

Breathtaking opportunities for stargazing are seemingly just as boundless in Choctaw Country.

You'll find your best bet for capturing awe-inspiring constellations lies in the area between Noshoba and Smithville, or in the seclusion of one of our peaceful state parks, like McGee Creek, Robbers Cave or Beavers Bend.

A few of the places in Choctaw Country we've found spectacular views of the stars:

OFF-ROADING

If you're an off-roader, you understand the relief that comes as Friday releases the shackles of the workweek and you're free to explore the world your way: on roads less traveled. There are no lines here. No stop signs. No traffic jams, road rage or places to be. From riverbed to dusty dune, life beyond the pavement is lived by a different code.

Whether you're curious about this exciting way of life or simply looking for some new places to explore, these trails are just waiting to unfold the secrets of their paths under your tires.

THE LEGEND OF BIGFOOT

You're alone in the woods, and the unexpected snapping of a nearby twig catches your attention.

As you turn to look, you're confronted with the outline of a hairy creature... too tall to be human, yet with the familiar stance of a man.

Before you're able to make any sort of distinction, it's gone—vanished into the night.

From the casually curious to avid enthusiasts with an unshakeable faith, the legend of Bigfoot has captivated generations of people for at least 400 years. And whether you're canvasing the woods for prints or attending a local festival in honor of this elusive creature, it's no wonder that the untamed woods of Choctaw Country are known as 'Squatch Country.

Is there actually a creature—somewhere between man and beast—lurking in the woods of Southeastern Oklahoma?

The truth is out there. Waiting to be found.

STATE PARKS & LAKE ACTIVITIES

In the state parks of Choctaw Country, you'll find adventure comes in all shapes and sizes. For some, it's exploring the local terrain on a hiking trail or unleashing your inner angler at a secluded fishing hole. For others, it's kayaking through the serpentine waters of Beavers Bend or skimming across Lake Eufaula with the gentle pull of wind in your hair and the intoxicating warmth of the sun caressing your skin.

Whatever flavor of relaxation and recreation you have in mind, you'll find it at one of these heavenly parks.
